

Spotlight on Lisa Wiznitzer (SSDS '07), Young Alumni Steering Committee Co-Chair

Why did you step up to serve as a Young Alumni Steering Committee Chair with Zach Fertig?

I wanted to give back to Schechter, foster a strong sense of community among fellow alumni, and actively contribute to the continued growth and success of our institution.

What are you most looking forward to at our 60th anniversary celebration on June 4th?

I am most looking forward to connecting with alumni, teachers, and community members.

As a young professional, what does being a member of the Schechter community mean to you all of these years later?

Being a member of the Schechter community signifies a shared bond and a network of individuals who have experienced the transformative power of education and personal growth within a supportive and inclusive environment. The values instilled in me during my time at Schechter continue to guide me in my personal and professional life, fostering a sense of belonging and a commitment to making a positive difference in the world.

What is one fun fact about you that people may not know?

I am a triple Northwestern Wildcat – BA (2015), JD (2018) and MBA (2023)!

Lisa is an attorney at Loeb & Loeb LLP, where she maintains a transactional practice focused on advertising, media, entertainment, sports and technology. In addition to her transactional work, Lisa maintains an active pro bono practice, including assisting a music education non-profit obtain 501(c) status and a Chicago theater finance the construction of a new building. Lisa recently served as the president of the Jewish United Fund – Young Leadership Division.